The dinner dance at the Commercial Athletic club and the dances afternoon and evening at the Elks' temple were the only formal celebrations of New Year's night in the city but several delightful open houses made the day interesting. A large company of friends filled the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Studebaker throughout the afternoon and a portion of the evening, where Mrs. Studebaker was assisted in receiving by Mrs. C. Breaux Ballard of Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. J. Dudley Peterson of Lockport, N. Y.; Mrs. Ewing S. Riley of Independence, Kas., and Mrs. E. Lewis Kuhns of Chicago. The Misses Rebecca and Maria Studebaker received from 2 o'clock to six at their home, 601 W. Lasalle av., the Misses Louise Studebaker and Bess Staples assisting them. At the rectory of St. James' Episcopal church a large company of parishioners and friends were received by Bishop John Hazen White, Mrs. White, Rev. H. R. White and Miss Mary May White.

The dinner dance at the C. A. C. was a delightful affair, attended by some 150 guests. The hall was decorated as for the Christmas dance, a lattice work of red and white ribbons forming a dome above the ball room, while an electric emblem in a setting of evergreen at the south end of the hall was a conspicuous feature. The parlors were arranged with holly and evergreen. Dinner was served at 7:30. It was preceded by three dances and followed by a program of dances which lasted until midnight. The Wheeler-Seymour orchestra of Michigan City played.

At the Elks' temple during the afternoon the children were entertained at an informal dancing party and in the evening the club members entertained their wives and friends at a similar affair. The orchestra played on both occasions, and delicious refreshments were served.

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Studebaker at Sunnyside was beautifully arranged for the afternoon in the Christmas green. The guests were received in the drawing room and in the dining room a dainty collation was served at a table beautifully appointed in lavender and white. The centerpiece was a cluster of lavender and in a lavender crystal receptacle. Among those who poured were Mrs. J. M. Studebaker, Jr., Mrs. C. A. Carlisle, Mrs. George M. Studebaker, Mrs. Scott Brown and Mrs. Kuhns of Chicago.

The Misses Studebaker, at their home on W. Lasalle av. received 75 guests during the afternoon. For many years they have kept open house each New Year's day and this year their reception was not less charming than usual. The table where tea was served was beautifully set with china lace and the centerpiece was an empire basket of Christmas foliage. Red shaded candles completed the effect. During the afternoon music was furnished by the Misses Gullfoyle. Among the out of town guests were E. Lewis Kuhns of Chicago, Ewing S. Riley and Franklin Riley of Independence, Kas.

One hundred and fifty members of St. James' church and their friends called at the rectory to pay their respects to Bishop White and Rev. Father White. Assisting Mrs. White in the dining room were Mrs. Carlotta Banta, Misses Julia Cole and Ida Wagner and Mrs. Judd. The tea table was centered with a basket of narcissi and roses.

A congenial gathering of members of the Indiana club and their friends enjoyed a tango tea at the club house New Year's afternoon from four o'clock to seven. Tea was served and a short program of dances passed the hours pleasantly. A large number of the guests remained at the club house for dinner in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Thomas, 419 S. Main st., entertained New Year's day with a dinner complimenting their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Keller and children of Laporte. Covers were placed for the honor guests, Mrs. Mary Keller, Miss Mattie Duffield, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barton, Thad Keller and Edwina Duffield. The centerpiece was a basket of fruit.

Following the watch service at the First Brethren church, Wednesday evening, Miss Letta Chandler, S. Michigan st., were united in marriage at the parsonage of the church, Rev. A. E. Thomas officiating. The young couple will live on E. Calvert st.

Miss Hazel Browne and Jesse Levee were united in marriage Wednesday at St. Joseph. Mr. and Mrs. Levee left immediately for an extended European trip.

Miss Ada Marie Berger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. K. Berger, 207 E. Indiana av., and Arthur D. Wertz of South Bend, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wertz of Melville, Pa., were united in marriage with impressive ceremony Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at St. Paul's Methodist Memorial church in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends. Dr. James L. Gardiner officiating. A reception followed immediately in Melville hall.

For half an hour before the ceremony, Max Miranda, organist, played a beautiful program of music, and promptly at 8 o'clock to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march the bride party entered. Ribbons were stretched by Miss Frances Studebaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Studebaker, and Edwin Witwer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Witwer. Both children were in white from head to foot.

The ushers, Louis Reigel and Mark L. Duncan, were followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Annie Reigel of Findlay, O., and Miss Katherine Apple of South Bend. Miss Reigel wore a gown of white moire silk with a bodice of shadow lace and a beaded tunic of pink chiffon. Miss Apple's gown was pale pink crepe de chine with a white beaded tunic. The maid of honor, who was Miss Florence Wertz of Meadville, sister of the groom, was gown in cream silk crepe with a pink beaded tunic. Each of the young women wore in her hair a beaded brocade band caught at the side with a large butterfly. Little Lois Baer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Baer preceded the bride, carrying the ring in a tiny empire basket. She wore a dainty frock of white silk with butterfly bows of pink. The bride entered on her father's arm. Her gown was a lovely creation of white brocade crepe with pearl trimmings. The bodice was of Chantilly lace, and at the waist in the back was a large flat bow of the lace with flowing ends caught in the train with a cluster of roses. She wore a full veil fastened with pearl ornaments and carried a shower of bride's roses and valley lilies. The groom and his best man, Dwight Wertz of Meadville, entered from the chancel.

Melville hall was beautifully decorated for the reception in pink, white and green. A cluster of white bells suspended on strands of southern smilax hung from the ceiling in the center of the ball room. All the lights in the hall were shaded with clusters of pink chrysanthemums. In the dining room, where the wedding collation was served the table was adorned with a cluster of pink roses and pink shaded candles. With the bride and groom in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. N. K. Berger, parents of the bride, and Miss Florence and Dwight Wertz, brother and sister of the groom. The guests were becoming gown of brocade blue silk with an overdress of black lace. Throughout the evening music was furnished by a stringed trio.

Mr. and Mrs. Wertz left for a short wedding trip after which they will be at home with the bride's parents.

A dancing party on New Year's eve was given by the Norlander and Hupp Peerless orchestra of South Bend at Carlyle hall in Edwardsburg. Forty-six couples attended, many of them from South Bend.

The Young People's Aid society of the United Brethren church was entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker, 1307 S. Lafayette st. After a series of games and contests lunch was served. The society will meet again the first Tuesday of February.

The last of the affairs for the younger crowd, the boys and girls home from boarding school, will be the dancing party Saturday evening at the Oliver hotel, given by Jack Studebaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Studebaker, Jr. Following the dance in the ball room, supper will be served in the dining room.

Complimenting Miss Josephine Williams of Chicago, who is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Slick, 103 N. Shore drive, William Slicker will entertain with small dinner Saturday evening at his home, 530 W. Lasalle av. Miss Williams will return home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lamirand, 529 N. Hill st., entertained New Year's day with a family dinner. Covers were placed for 35, among whom were 14 grandchildren of the host and hostess. The guests from out of the city were Mr. and Mrs. Weber of Mishawaka and Miss Lucy Kehoe of Niles.

Henry Harper, 522 W. Colfax av., will entertain a small company of friends with a party at the Orpheum this evening followed by supper at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Studebaker will entertain Saturday evening with a small family dinner complimenting out of town guests.

Miss Gertrude Oliver will entertain Saturday from 4 o'clock to 7 with a tea dainty complimenting the out of town guests, Mrs. Ewing S. Riley, Mrs. G. Breaux Ballard and Mrs. J. Dudley Peterson.

Mrs. J. Fred Christman, 532 S. Carroll st., entertained this afternoon with a winter party at the Orpheum followed by tea at the Robertson tea room, complimenting her guest, Miss Kathryn Earlsman of Dayton, O., and Miss Helen Shepard of Indianapolis.

EGGLESS RECIPES

Caroline Coe Tells How to Make Nourishing and Tempting Dishes Without Using Priceless Eggs.

MOLASSES GINGER BREAD.

Two cupsful of flour, measure after sifting; one cup of molasses; half cup of sour cream or milk, one teaspoon of soda, one of ginger, half teaspoon of salt, one generous tablespoon of shortening and one of cold water.

Put the molasses, milk, salt and ginger into bowl. Dissolve soda in water. Melt shortening and add soda water and shortening to mixture in bowl. Beat well. Add the flour and beat quickly. Pour into well greased pans and bake in quick oven 20 minutes. Serve hot.

FRUIT CAKE.

Put one pound of fat salt pork through the grinder. Pour over it one pint of boiling water in which has been dissolved one tablespoon of soda. Add three cups of brown sugar, one cup of molasses, one even teaspoon of nutmeg, one of cinnamon, one-half teaspoon of allspice. Add two pounds of seeded raisins that have been cut into but not chopped, one pound of currants, one cup of almond meats put through grater, one-half cup of grated coconut, one-half pound of citron sliced thin and in long strips. Add to all of this eight cups of flour. Bake in deep pan with tube in center one hour in moderate oven.

CORN STARCH FRITTERS.

Two cups of milk in double boiler, add one-half cup of sugar, four even tablespoons of corn starch blended with a little of the milk from the double boiler and a pinch of salt. Add to warm milk and boil until it will not drop from spoon. Set aside to become slightly cool. Add one-half cup of diced pineapple that has been thoroughly drained. Put into pan about two inches deep. Set away to become cold and firm. Cut in strips or squares. Dip into fritter batter. Drop in deep fat until golden brown and serve at once with pineapple sauce.

FEATHER CAKE.

Cream one cup of sugar with one tablespoon of butter. Beat until light and foamy. Add one-half cup of milk, one and one-half cups of flour sifted three times with one-half teaspoon of soda and one even tablespoon of cream of tartar. Beat all together. Flavor with lemon. Bake in muffin rings in two small layers and put together with chocolate filling.

CHOCOLATE FILLING.

Buy five cents worth of chocolate creams, put in a bowl and turn out a tablespoonful of boiling water on them. Put bowl in top of teakettle until the mass is all melted, beat until creamy.

DUTCH LOAF.

Use one cup of light bread dough, add one-half cup of sugar and one tablespoon of butter. Work all together until very smooth. Add half cup of raisins and any desired spice. Shape into loaves. Let raise to double the size. Bake 45 minutes in moderate oven.
